JASON BLUNT's PROGRESS REPORT

First of all, I'm delighted with the appointment of Kevin Richards and to be working alongside him.

Our Youth team structure continues to grow, with new Under-7s and 8s, both boys and girls.

Jorome Slew is currently on trial with Championship club Barnsley. Lets hope he gets his rewards - and all credit to our club's hard work on his behalf.

All our teams are doing well - with everyone playing 'the right way'.

The relationship between teams is really good - recent example being the Reserves stepping up to the 1st team.

Well done to Josh Otto, selected for the first Cornwall U18 squad. I'm sure there'll be more from here e.g. Yeshe Briar, Josh Storey and others.

Just a reminder! Youth is the key to club's long-term success.

Our U9s are on a great weekend trip, playing Leeds and Sheffield United Academies, and attending Sheff Utd v Reading in the Championship!

A big thanks to everyone involved with their hard work leading up to and during the Leeds fixture here: a huge success for the community.

Finally: big thanks to Mike Prisk for his dedication and commitment in taking on groundsman's work at Marazion as well as here at Trungle Parc.

WELCOME! from TIM RICHARDSON Chairman of Mousehole AFC

Welcome to you all for our very first League fixture of the season at Trungle Parc in late October!

How brilliant it was to be 'back home' at our refurbished HQ last Saturday for the League Cup-tie against Premier Division Camelford. And what a superb exhibition of football from two sides committed to playing with style and giving youth its chance. Our 1-0 'giant-killing' might have been a bit of a surprise to some people, but we are gradually gelling and proving hard to beat, and now have three wins out of the last four games.

It was a 'clean sweep' last weekend, with our 1st, 2nd and 3rd teams all winning, and the new Under-18s also tasting victory on Sunday in their first ever match. So, huge congratulations to all the managers, coaches and of course the players who made it happen.

It was also great to see all the energy and activity over at Marazion with the youth teams in action, and loads of spectators!

After the massive efforts made all round to make the Leeds United Day such a success, we've now had time to relax a bit and think about how to continue to improve the whole of the club. So, it's 'switch on and focus' time, and we'll be announcing further initiatives over the coming weeks.

There is always work to do during the week, on match days and over the weekend in the clubhouse, on the pitch, around the ground, and in the community, so if you or anyone else - ex-players, friends of the club, friends of friends - can volunteer an hour or two here and there your input would be both valuable and appreciated. Come and join the journey!

Leanne Harvey has organised a kids' Hallowe'en Party in the clubhouse next Friday (27th), 6pm to 9pm, prizes, fun & games, fancy dress. £2.

Cheers, Tim

'HELLO' from KEVIN RICHARDS

The views of The Seagulls' new First team manager

After our terrific result against Camelford last Saturday, it's back to the important matter of picking up some much needed league points.

Today I welcome two friends, Si Westlake and Ben Washam and their Dobwalls team to Trungle Parc. Si and Ben were with me at Godolphin - it will be good to see them again and buy them a beer after the game.

We come into this game after picking up successive wins and, at last, keeping a well-deserved clean sheet. Our back five were outstanding last week and we will need them to be at their best again today.

It was great that the lads were able to pull off such a result in a long-anticipated first home game and I hope our supporters enjoyed it enough to come back and support the team again today.

Your support is invaluable. Enjoy the game. Kevin

MATCH REPORT: MOUSEHOLE 1-0 CAMELFORD ,LAST SATURDAY

Mousehole pulled off the major upset of the second round of the League Cup on Saturday, beating higher-division opponents Camelford 1-0 in their first competitive fixture at the re-furbished Trungle Parc after playing their first ten matches away from home - and in so doing achieved their first 'clean sheet' of the season.

This was The Seagulls' third win in four games after league victories at Bude Town and Wadebridge Town, and after an earlier against-the-odds 3-2 win at table-topping Ludgvan in the first round they now eagerly await a third round tie on New Year's Day (with the draw to be made this week).

Both teams had players missing from their regular match-day squads. Mousehole were without the unavailable Bradley Wills and top scorer Jerome Slew, but Liam Andrew was fit after a broken nose suffered in the recent Leeds United 'warm up', Tyler Tonkin retained an unaccustomed right back position for the second match, recent signing ex-Helston Athletic defensive midfielder Jordan Adlard made his second start, and Connor Davey was available to return to the line-up. Camelford fielded a team comprising several players who represent Cornwall Under-18s, including influential midfielder and County captain Charlie Hambly.

Each side had recorded two league wins, two draws and five defeats, and in keeping with the form guide the game was closely contested on the day between two evenly matched teams.

Mousehole started the game on the front foot, with Liam Andrew, Jordan Adlard and Matt McIlroy all coming close to opening the scoring within the first 15 minutes, but the visitors came back into the game, putting two presentable chances over and then being denied on 38 minutes by goalkeeper Steve Parker-Billinge's spectacular diving save from a curling free kick from 25 yards.

The second half resumed with attacking play by both sides, Caleb Marsden firing wide for The Seagulls after a break from halfway on 49 minutes, captain Billy Curtis acrobatically clearing a goalbound header off the line under pressure at the other end after 55, and The Camels' excellent young goalkeeper Luke Gwilliam making a superb save to keep out Luke Johnson's fierce drive on 62. The breakthrough came in Mousehole's favour after 70 minutes when Luke Johnson made another driving run past two defenders down the right and his square pass was calmly side-footed in from 15 yards by Matt McIlroy.

To their credit the visitors responded in great style, and an eventful five minute spell saw a decisive point in the match when Steve Parker-Billinge produced a magnificent point-blank double-save to prevent a certain equaliser, followed by more close calls with a shot just past the post and the alert Max Hill blocking a possible chance.

Having weathered the storm with resolute defending, the hosts wasted chances to seal victory with a couple of fast breaks, and Matt McIlroy was then thwarted by Gwilliam before hitting the post with a 20-yard free kick. But it was the Premier Division side who almost took the game into a further half hour of extra time when a header across goal trickled narrowly wide on 85 minutes, and in the final act of a fascinating match a difficult close-range chance was scooped over the bar deep into added-on time.
